

Classical Takes To The Ice!

Recently Classical High Seniors skated at the BankNewport ice rink in DOWNCITY Providence, keeping a century old tradition alive.

The Alumni Association takes great pride in sponsoring this tradition that returned following a 2-year hiatus due to the pandemic.

The Alumni Association looks forward to continuing the tradition every year!
